It's an exciting time to be a Friend!

Now is the perfect time to become a Friend of the Library! The possibilities are endless; get involved and help make a significant difference in the community.

As a Friend of the Library, you can help by:

- Sponsoring library programs
- Volunteering to help at programs, fundraisers & special events
- Donating used books for our special book sales and permanent sale cart
- Sharing ideas & helping to make them happen
- Helping to fundraise

Make a Difference!

The Friends of the Ruth Culver Community Library is a group dedicated to making the library a great place and believe that the library is a valuable community asset.

What do Friends members do? Friends help to enhance and improve library services by sharing their time, talents, thoughts and support.

How much time does it take? No time commitment is necessary. We welcome Friends to join our list of volunteers for special events. We'll contact you when we need help and you decide if the opportunity fits your schedule.

How can I become more involved? Your participation in the Friends can be as unique as you are! Individuals who want to become more involved in the Friends have a variety of opportunities to make a real difference in the library. Examples of recent activities include the sponsorship of the summer reading program and speakers and classes for adults, along with fundraising events such as the annual golf outing and book sales. Help make ideas happen!

How do I become a Friend? You can become a Friend of the Ruth Culver Community Library by submitting a completed membership form along with dues for the membership level you've selected. Dues start at only $5 a year for an individual membership and $10 for a family or business. Individuals choosing the lifetime membership pay one-time dues of $100 and become a Friend for life!

What are the benefits of being a friend? Being a member of the Friends can be fun and rewarding. Enjoy the company of fellow Friends at meetings or while helping out at special events. You will also receive a special newsletter for Friends members, and have the opportunity to make a real difference.

You can make a difference! Show your support and become a Friend of the Ruth Culver Community Library today.
